Chicago Yesterday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.
CHICAGO, July 6.—John Dwyer, popular with thousands of Chicagoans, Admired by a crowd of 10,000 at the lakefront, the wizard of chess, who, in his 10 years, having one engagement after another from the 30 degree north to the 50 degree south, has developed his game to a point where he can play blindfolded, and, for the last two years, has been considered the greatest chess player in the world.

Dwyer had six rounds today that took him over 10 hours in his hotel room, but he came out with a win.

He is the first American to have won a round in the tournament.
